WABASH COLLEGE

Assessment Advisory Meeting

17 May 2004

Summary

The Center of Inquiry recently formed a national advisory group to assist us in our effort to support the assessment of liberal arts outcomes at colleges and universities. It is an experimental group that will exist for an initial period of one year. The group will meet two times in 2004, and will be accessible for periodical consultation by phone/email to the Center and our partner institutions on an as-needed basis. Our first national advisory group meeting is scheduled for May 18-19.

Participants	Institution
